Study away in the United States, Canada and U.S. territories

What is National Student Exchange ?

The National Student Exchange is a program for undergraduates to study away at universities within the United States, U.S. Territories, and Canada for a semester or academic year. Credits earned at the host university transfer back to OSU when you return from your program.

Where can you go 📍

OSU partners with approximately 170 universities through NSE, which are spread throughout 50 states, 3 U.S. territories, and 7 Canadian provinces. See the back side of this page for your program options.

How to fund your trip 💰

There are two payment options through NSE, Home Pay and Host Pay. With Home Pay, students pay the tuition/fees to OSU while on their program. With Host Pay, students pay the in-state rate to their host university. Financial aid will be filed at whichever institution the student chooses to pay. To receive federal financial aid, you must take courses that apply toward your degree for universities outside of the U.S.

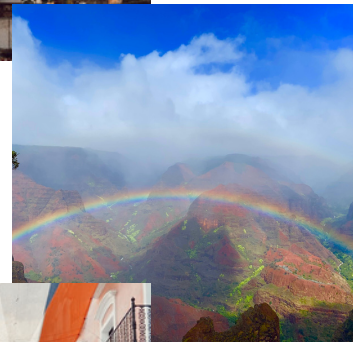

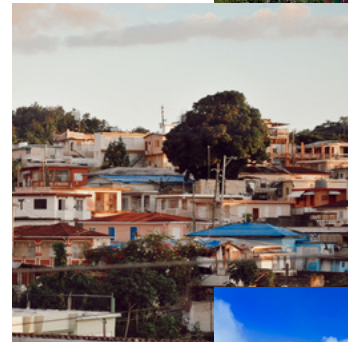

Eligibility ✓

Students with a 2.5 GPA or above with at least 24 credit hours at the time of their trip can participate. Some exceptions for GPA can be made. The priority deadline for all semester and academic year applications is Feb. 7th. Applications submitted after the deadline are considered on a first-come, first-serve basis depending on the availability of the host universities.
