BE AN OSU COWBOY

From all 50 states and more than 100 countries around the world, our students make the Cowboy family a vibrant and inclusive culture. We welcome you with arms wide open.

I can’t put into words how much I learned and what a great time I had at Oklahoma State University. The community in Stillwater is very warm and welcoming. During the first week of classes I got invited by OSU students on a camping trip in Arkansas that introduced me to a group of friends. I also met a lot of people from all over the world that lived in my residence hall with whom I’m still in contact.

I had a lot of impactful experiences at the University, such as participating in a career fair and receiving job interviews for summer placements. Some of my favorite memories are going to OSU football games with friends. Oklahoma State is a great university and the friends I made at OSU have become like family.

WE’VE GOT SPIRIT!

Football is special at OSU — and nothing is more special than our home games. We start early and go late. There’s tailgating everywhere on campus, with all kinds of food served. Cheer our Cowboys to victory with help from our marching band, cheerleaders and the thousands of fans that attend every home game.

ORANGE POWER

OSU’s school colors were first chosen in the late 1890s. The selection of orange and black was a tribute to a popular faculty member whose father was a Princeton graduate. Students adopted Princeton’s orange and black colors and some of the school’s first athletic teams were even referred to as the “Tigers” in the early 1900s. Every Friday students are encouraged to wear orange to show their school spirit — we call this Orange Friday.
